SERVICE OXYGÈNE'S SATELLITE APARTMENTS - RÉSIDENCE LEO'S BOY'S AND MAISON JACQUELINE VERRETTE- ARE ROOMING HOUSE TYPE OF RESIDENTIAL FACILITIES. THESE RESOURCES WERE SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED TO HELP ELDERLY (50 YEARS AND OVER) PAROLEES REINTEGRATE THE COMMUNITY AFTER HAVING UNDERGONE MANY YEARS OF INCARCERATION.

length of stay

The length of stay depends on each resident and his ability to become sufficiently autonomous to reintegrate the community in a satisfactory fashion. The length of stay is evaluated by the Admissions Committee every 6 months.

A resident whose warrant expiry ends during his stay will be given an extra 3 months of residency to find another apartment.

location

Residence Leo's Boys is located in the St-Henri neighbourhood of Montréal, while Maison Jacqueline Verrette is located in the Mercier/Hochelaga-Maisonneuve neighbourhood.

description

In order to preserve a family atmosphere and the warmth of a normal home, the Satellite Apartment can house a limit of 9 to 11 men in each facility.

services and activities

The Coordinator of service Oxygene is responsible for the overall operation of the Satellite Apartments, while an animator monitors their daily functioning. The Coordinator and the animator join forces to ensure that the Satellite Apartments offer a pleasant living environment.

philosophy

Cohabitation with people having a similar history and past is reassuring for new residents who can adapt progressively and safely to their new environment without losing their former points of reference.

The Satellite Appartements of Service Oxygène is an initiative of corporation Maison Cross Roads.
